Title 5 Section 40401

1. A student remaining in continuous attendance in regular sessions at a regionally accredited post-secondary institution may, for the purpose of meeting graduation requirements from Mt. San Antonio College, elect to meet the requirements in effect at any time between entrance to Mt. San Antonio College and graduation from Mt. San Antonio College.
2. The division dean may authorize substitutions for discontinued courses.
3. For purposes of this section, students are considered in “continuous attendance” if any of the following exist:
 - a. the student was enrolled in any credit course at Mt. San Antonio College at the time of the class census date during either of the past two regular sessions (Intersession attendance does not apply towards catalog rights.);
 - b. the student completed any units in a credit course at another regionally accredited post-secondary institution in at least one regular semester or two regular quarters in the previous academic year (Intersession attendance does not apply towards catalog rights.); or
 - c. the student was on a leave approved by Mt. San Antonio College.
4. Exception: A student who meets the requirements noted above, but who has not been enrolled in any credit course at Mt. San Antonio College at the time of the class census date during any of the previous four regular sessions (two years), may not use requirements more than two academic years prior to the current requirements, except as required by law.
