II. Old Business

A. TILT Project

Looking to launch a similar project this year.

At the end of last year Loni submitted a Guided pathways grant. Proposal was written based on this idea.

Loni opens it up to feedback for comments

Andrew asks the scope and scale of the Mt. SAC version of the project as well as how student feedback would be facilitated.

Mary asks about the timetable.

Loni proposes planning to begin immediately with a possible roll out as early as this current term (Fall 2020).

Loni asks for a small group to aide in this project made up of some Outcomes committee members.

Parisa asks about the hours that would be asked of the faculty in regards to the project.

Andrew brings up that there should be some attention paid to a focus on courses that may be lacking transparency as opposed to a random sampling.

Annel asks if we are looking at those courses that aren't achieving outcomes as candidates for this project.

Annel, Peter, and Loni will discuss further offline.

B. PIE & PLOs

PLO monitoring is under the outcomes umbrella.

Exploring connecting PIE to Program Review and connecting PLOs.

Loni reiterates that this model is not about taking resources from successful programs or penalizing programs that are less successful.

Fawaz asks Loni to clarify her definition of PLOs.

Loni clarifies that she is referencing to the competencies that students achieve after completing a series of courses.

Fawaz notes that this is already happening that all program competencies go through a rigorous process including WEBCMS and the chancellors office.

Annel notes that the PLOs are in NuVentive.

Annel notes that some departments and divisions have almost created their own assessment process for PLOs.

Christina notes that questions about the accessibility of PLO data can be something we ask about at the coming NuVentive training.

Fawaz shows an example of a PLO mapping.

Annel asks if Loni can provide an example of a PLO assessment from the ALA program.

Christopher noted that this is the area we got a "black eye" during the last reaffirmation.

Fawaz provides some of the PLO assessment sheets used in the past.

C. Technology

1. Website more transparent

Loni will reach out for help on the website, possible from GPS. Looking to create a more transparent and useful interface.

2. NuVentive vs. other assessment management systems

Discussion of the upcoming training in NuVentive.

3. Outcomes on Canvas

Loni opens it to discussion on what areas tech wise should be our priority.

Multiple members inquire if Canvas will be here to stay.

Fawaz notes that there is no push to remove Canvas.
