AMLA 70 SAMPLE ASSIGNMENT

After watching the video titled, "Me or We? Cultural Difference between East and West," discuss the following questions. Which type, individualistic or collectivist, could be used to describe your culture? Why?

In your writing, explain at least FOUR aspects of the individualistic or collectivist culture that you feel are appropriate to describe your own native culture. Be sure to give specific examples from your own experience as a member of that type of culture.

Submit your response by uploading a document that follows MLA format and contains at least nine (9) sentences.

AMLA 80 CLASS TEXT

AMLA 80 SAMPLE ASSIGNMENT

We know that each of the following individuals and groups have a variation of push and pull factors which motivate their reasons to migrate (to move). The family members of the Grande family had different reasons; the different groups identified in "A Brief History of Immigration in the U.S." were each pushed for different factors, and our parents, cousins, and friends also have multiple factors which pushed or pulled them.

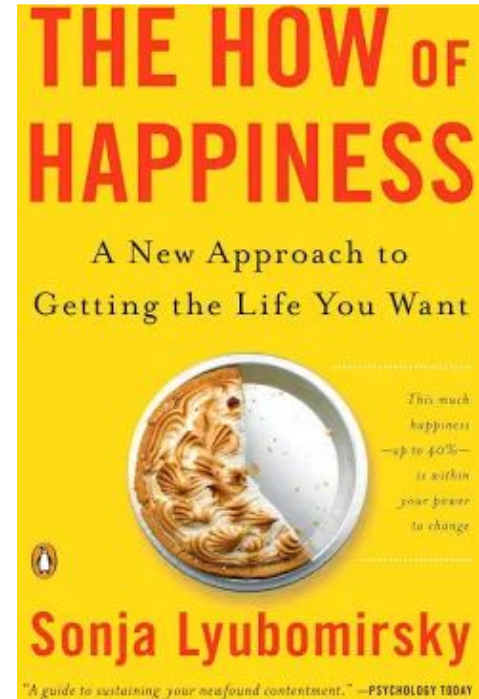

Identify one person or one group that you know or are familiar with. Then analyze (break down) the factors that pushed or pulled them to the United States.

- What was going on in their home country that possibly pushed them out?
- What was going on here in the United States that possibly pulled them to leave their home?
- Make a connection to one of our class sources to help you support your analysis.

AMLA 90 CLASS TEXT

- The How of Happiness by Sonja Lyubomirsky (ISBN-10 : 0143114956)
- You are encouraged to buy your own copy of this book so that you can write notes in it
- If you cannot buy it, a copy will be provided to you but must be returned unmarked and in reusable condition at the end of the term.

AMLA 90 SAMPLE ASSIGNMENT

During the Covid pandemic in 2020 and 2021, many people were having trouble paying bills, some people lost their jobs, others became very sick, and still others lost friends or family members. It was a difficult time for many of us. Yet most people feel grateful for surviving that experience.

People often feel better when they help others. For example, sometimes the person at Starbucks will pay for the coffee of the person behind them in the line. People give money to charities or donate old clothes to the homeless. Some people donate blood or give money to help the poor.

Perhaps you have heard of Chen Si, called the Angel of Nanjing, who has stopped many people from committing suicide by jumping off the bridge.

In this gratitude journal entry, write about a time when you helped someone else. It does not have to be a big million-dollar donation; it can be a random act of kindness. Maybe you helped your elderly neighbor find his lost dog. Or maybe you found someone's wallet and returned it to them.

Tell a story about something kind that you did for someone else, and explain how that made you feel afterward.

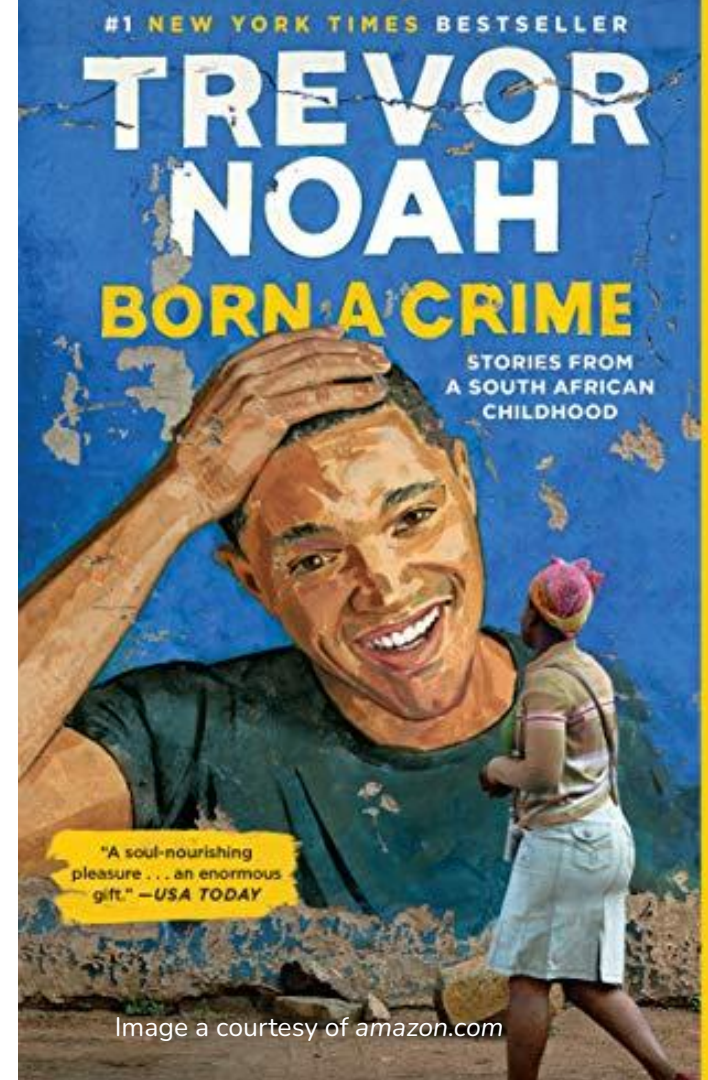

Other tips:

- Review the page on Writing an Essay.
- Complete the MLA formatting review.
- Review the "Secrets of Adulthood" in The Happiness Project (Rubin 11)

AMLA 1A CLASS TEXT

- Born a Crime by Trevor Noah
ISBN: 978-0-399-5881-8
- You are encouraged to buy your own copy of this book so that you can write notes in it.
- If you cannot buy it, you may borrow a copy! You must return it with no marks and in good condition at the end of the term.

AMLA 1A SAMPLE ASSIGNMENT

To complete this low-stakes writing assignment, answer the following question in 1.5-2 pages of original writing.

Is it our responsibility (people who live in the USA) to help people who have been victims of violence or persecution because of their identities? Why or why not?

- Consider what we have learned about in-groups and out-groups as well as identity (roles vs. achieved/ascribed status)
- Are there real-world examples you can think of where the USA has stepped into help victims of violence or persecution? How do these examples support your stance on this topic?
- Make connections to oppression, the bystander effect, social justice.
- Use at least one quote sandwich in your LSW. Your quote sandwich must be from one of our class sources.

Incorporate relevant vocabulary and examples from this week's readings, tasks, and activities, and support your ideas with specific details and examples whenever possible. If you decide to use quotations or paraphrases, don't forget to cite the sources you used.
