FALL 2024 NEWSLETTER

Congratulations on completing the RSCO activation for Fall 2024. Your RSCO will remain active through June 30, 2025.* In the first week of Spring 2025, the ICC Advisor will conduct an RSCO Officers' eligibility check. If an officer is no longer eligible, the Primary Advisor will be notified to submit replacement officers by the designated Spring activation date.

RSCOs who missed the Fall activation deadline will have an opportunity to obtain Spring activation by completing the activation process by Friday, March 21, 2025, at 4 p.m.

*RSCOs can only host planning meetings during the winter and summer terms (events and travel will not be approved during these terms).

RSCO Co-Lab Space Bldg. 410 – 2085

RSCO officers can utilize the space and workroom for RSCO projects.

RSCOs have access to:

- Butcher paper & paint
- Paint brushes
- Button making
- Poster maker/ Laminator
- Assigned locker

RSCO Lockers

Active RSCOs are eligible to be assigned a small storage locker in Building 410.

If you are the RSCO Advisor and would like to check out a locker, please complete and submit the Locker Request & Agreement Form (found in email sent to all active RSCO Advisors).

Revised RSCO Documents

Student Life and Associated Students have updated the A.S. Publicity Guide (used for flyers) and the RSCO Event Guidelines (used for RSCO event submissions on 25Live).

Both documents are on our website: www.mtsac.edu/clubs under the Student Resources and Advisor Resources.

RSCO of the Year

RSCO of the Year award was created to highlight the most active and impactful RSCO on campus.

RSCOs can earn points for the following (review ICC Constitution for breakdown of potential points earned):

- ICC Meeting Attendance
- Join-A-Club Participation
- Volunteer Opportunities
- Collaboration Opportunities (with Associated Students and/or another RSCO)
- Events held by each RSCO
- RSCO of the Year PowerPoint presentation*

The winner will be announced at the Student Leadership and Advisor Awards ceremony. The winning RSCO will receive a $1,000 monetary award (deposited to the RSCO's account through Fiscal Services).

Volunteer Points

Volunteer work must be approved by the ICC advisor and submitted to 25Live for Student Life approval.

RSCOs will need to submit the Volunteer Form to studentlife@mtsac.edu by 12/13/24 (for Fall 2024) and 5/16/25 (for Spring 2025) @ 11:59 p.m.

Collaboration Points

RSCOs can earn collaboration points by collaborating with another RSCO and/or Associated Students by hosting an event/meeting together (events must be submitted to 25Live for Student Life approval).

To gain collaboration points, please complete the Collaboration Form (see RSCO Forms and Advisor Resources) and email it to studentlife@mtsac.edu by 12/13/24 (for Fall 2024) and 5/16/25 (for Spring 2025) @ 11:59 p.m.

RSCO of the Year Presentation

1. Create a PowerPoint presentation that explains why your RSCO should be voted RSCO of the Year. Make sure the presentation does not exceed ten (10) slides.
2. Email your presentation to studentlife@mtsac.edu by May 19, 2025 at 4:00 p.m.
3. Present your RSCO's PowerPoint in 5 minutes or less at the last ICC meeting. All RSCOs that submit their presentations by the deadline will be listed on a ballot. All active ICC Representatives will vote for their choice for RSCO of the Year at this final meeting.

*Note: Only 1 submission is allowed, altering or updating presentations after it has been accepted will not be allowed or eligible for review.
