Debit Cards are not recommended since the hotel immediately deducts for incidentals upon check-in ($100.00 to start). The amount held is based on hotel policy and anything unused is released at checkout. Check with your financial institution for their policy on funds being returned to your account. If the first $100 is used prior to checkout, another $100 will be held. To avoid holds, the hotel recommends using your debit card only for room and tax. Tell the front desk that you will not charge any incidental fees to your room. Your Magic Band will then only work as your room key. You are free to use your debit card at all outlets throughout the hotel and the parks, but no holds will apply to your account. Note that a $100 hold is also applied for credit cards.
