Helpful Websites

ONet Online: provides detailed information about various occupations, including job duties, work activities, and the skills and knowledge required for each occupation, to help job seekers, students, and career explorers investigate over 900 occupations.

Click Here To Access ONet Online

My Next Move: an interactive tool designed for job seekers and students to explore their career options. The tool provides tasks, skills, salary information, and more for over 900 different careers.

Click Here To Access My Next Move

Career One Stop: a comprehensive online resource designed to provide integrated workforce information and support for job seekers, students, workers, employers, and workforce intermediaries.

Click Here To Access Career One Stop

Occupational Outlook Handbook: provides details on various aspects of careers, including: the nature of the work, working conditions, training and education requirements, earnings, and job outlook.

Click Here To Access Occupational Outlook Handbook

What Can I Do With This Major: designed to help students and individuals explore the connection between academic majors and potential career paths. It features profiles for over 100 different majors, providing detailed information on common career options, types of employers that typically hire graduates in those fields, and strategies to enhance employability.

Click Here To Access What Can I do With This Major

Handshake: connects students with potential employers, providing a space where they can find jobs, internships, and career opportunities tailored to their educational background and interests. The platform aims to democratize access to job opportunities by allowing students from various backgrounds to connect with employers who are actively seeking talent.

Click Here To Access Handshake

Career Assessments: connect with your Career Specialist to learn more about how career assessments can help you in narrowing down your interests and career choices.

Click Here To Access Career Assessments